

Release of Indian Journal of Geosciences, Volume 72, No. 3 (July – September, 2018):

Indian Journal of Geosciences, Volume 72, No. 3 (July – September, 2018) was released by Dr. Dinesh Gupta, Director General, Geological Survey of India on 28th December, 2018 at Central Headquarters, GSI, Kolkata. Shri Kamalakanta Panda, Addl. Director General (Finance) & HoD, CHQ, Shri Deo Nath, Addl. Director General & NMH-III, Smt Neeharika Jha, Dy. Director General, Mission-IIIB and Shri Ananda Modak, Sr. Geologist, Publication Division, CHQ, GSI were also present during the release.

IJG is a quarterly journal published by GSI. It invites original scientific contributions on any discipline of Earth Sciences. The present issue contains seven manuscripts containing Base metal mineralisation in North Delhi Fold Belt, Palaeoproterozoic magmatism in Kumaun Lesser Himalaya, SEM-EDX studies of halite of HEG, Western Rajasthan, Conservation of Natural Resources, Fluoride contamination in the groundwater in parts of Agra District, Study of geo-environmental parameters for assessing feasibility of tidal power station in the creeks of Sundarbans and To locate buried treasure using GPR in Kurnool, Andhra Pradesh. The main focus is to disseminate scientific data/work through publishing different articles in our in-house journal.

