परिपत्र /CIRCULAR

This is to inform all that now the papers for publication in “Indian Journal of Geosciences (IJG) – in-house journal of Geological survey of India” can be submitted online through OCBIS after login with employee Id. The officers from outside organisations can submit the paper as guest after sign in as external on the upper right corner of Home page. The link for submission of paper is given below:

After signing in \Rightarrow go to Menu Core App \Rightarrow in the dropdown menu go to tab

Publication \Rightarrow Enter manuscript

The authors may submit papers directly to this office after getting forwarded by the immediate Supervisory officer.

In the recent past a few papers have been received for publication in IJG having high percentage of similarity (when checked for plagiarism and has been pointed out by the reviewers). The officers are therefore, advised to refrain themselves from any kind of plagiarism including self plagiarism. If any officer, in future is found guilty in such cases the matter will be put up to the higher authorities for appropriate action.
